Prophet confesses that South African pastors use witchcraft, satanism and magic to perform miracles

Prophet Trevor Kautsire was interviewed by a TV presenter Brian Banda in an interview on one Malawian television talkshow where he made the chilling claims that modern day Prophets are not using the power of the Holy Spirit to perform their so-called 'miracles'.

"I was in South Africa and I met the who-is-who of the gospel, what they told me is heart-breaking," said Kautsire.

He disclosed that when he was in South Africa he was told of rituals that he had to perform if he were to become a renowned Prophet. Kautsire disclosed that the ritual involved sacrifices that included the killing of family members or church members.

"I am speaking this from experience, some Prophets have had to sacrifice their church members to gain fame. You have heard of people dying in places of worship, it is because they are using the people as sacrifices," said Kautsire, a comment which commentators said was referring to the Nigerian televangelist Prophet TB Joshua at whose church over a hundred people died. 94 of the 116 people who perished were SOuth African.

Kautsire further said that it was easy to decipher fake Prophets because they do 'miracles' for no important reason."

A miracle is supposed to meet a need, however when a Prophet does a miracle that does not meet any need there is no reason to believe that Prophet," he said.

Commentators have thought that he was apparently referring to Bushiri who has been in the news for the walk-in-the air stunt which does nothing to glorify the name of the Lord.He said that Prophets are using magic, witchcraft and Satanism to perform miracles.

"There are some who are told to keep a worm and keep feeding it, the worm grows into a snake and when it comes to that stage where it is a snake, it brings them money. The catch is that one should never sleep with their wife but the snake," said Kautsire disclosing the secrets in the dark world of Prophecy.

Lol, why am I not surprised? People run to these pastors and prophets as if they are gods, they even buy them cars costing 1.3millions. Maybe this article'll help the few to open their eyes. Problem is u can't argue with some of these Christians and if u do they'll even go to extreme to call u SoddomandGomorra, meanwhile they put their trusts and get swindled of their tithing money by these fake prophets. Good advice: stay at ur homes and read ur bible and pray to the Lord inside ur own house. It is better than being prayed for by these fake pastors and prophets who'll put more evil spirits in u that'll worsen ur problems. I know u won't listen to me because this sunday u'll be running to drink petrol or eat grass in that other prophet we all know, or u'll be doing more coz in Mzansi anything is possible.

U see a pastor changing a stone into money and u then claim God is working through this pastor. How lost! My advice again: go back to understand the beginning of time, and u'll see that Lucifer has power as well, and can do miracles to woo people to his kingdom. This is the reason why we hear of these fake pastors and prophets. Some'll say there are good ones who use God's power. What? It is painful to see God's population rejecting Him for a prophet or a pastor. I pray you educate yourself. Don't be fooled by wolves in sheep clothings.
